

ALMA TIES WITH DETROIT JUNIOR

MARON AND CREAM FORCES THE FIGHT BUT IS UNABLE TO SCORE.

Playing in a sea of water and mud at Gridley field in Detroit Saturday Alma battled to a 0 to 0 tie with Detroit Junior College, failing to improve its two possible scoring chances that came the way of the Maroon and Cream, during the second quarter of the fray.

During the first quarter of the game the two teams battled about even, the mud and water bothering both teams to a great extent in this session of the fray.

Almost immediately after the opening of the second quarter Alma was given a wonderful scoring opportunity. The ball was on the Alma 42 yard mark when the quarter opened. Catherman ripped off a run, going to the Detroit Junior 50 yard line. From this point he heaved a beautiful forward pass to Sartor, which the Maroon and Cream gathered in and started for the goal with. Half a yard from the goal Sartor was pulled down, while attempting to use a straight arm. On the first play Alma fumbled and recovered for a loss of four yards. On the second play the Almaties were handed five yards for off side. Two shift plays failed to put the ball over and it went to Detroit Junior.

Junior punted out, and Alma took the ball and started back to the Junior goal. The Alma quarter heaved a pass to Sartor, and this with several shift plays put the ball on Junior's ten yard line. A fumble at this point gave Junior the ball. The two fumbles that came on these two possible scoring opportunities were two of the four that Alma made during the entire game, indicating that hard luck was chasing the Maroon and Cream.

Yet once during the entire game did Junior get close enough to the Alma goal to really threaten to score a touchdown. The Detroiters once got as far into Alma territory as the twenty yard line, but for the greater part the play was around midfield, with the big majority of it in Junior's territory.

Catherman played a stellar game at quarter for Alma, and like his passing in the M. A. C. game, this end of his work featured. His passing was remarkably accurate when it is considered that the oval was damp and slippery. Anderson also played a splendid game. The entire team put up a fine battle, and with the possible exception of Catherman, it would be hard to rate any man as featuring, as all of them played hard consistent football.

M. I. A. A. TEAMS BUSY THIS WEEK

Albion's football team will be the only idle aggregation of the M. I. A. A. this week, a mixup in the schedule leaving the Methodists with an open date. Kalamazoo and Olivet will lock horns in the first strictly association contest Saturday. Games of the coming week end follow:

Hope College of Holland vs. Alma at Alma.
Assumption of Windsor vs. Adrian at Adrian.
Hillsdale vs. Grand Rapids at Grand Rapids.
Kalamazoo vs. Olivet at Olivet.
Michigan State Normal vs. Mt. Pleasant Normal at Mt. Pleasant.

Dutchmen to Play At Alma Saturday

Coach Roy Campbell's Alma College football aggregation will inaugurate the home season Saturday afternoon meeting the strong Hope College outfit on Davis field, and every confidence reigns in the Maroon and Cream camp that the Presbyterians will dump the Dutchmen in the struggle.

A constant improvement has been noticeable in the work of the Maroon and Cream both in defense and in offense since the Michigan Aggie fray, which was the first test of the season for the new eleven. The improvement has been so noticeable that it is attracting attention from the local fans who are warming up to football this year in a way that has not been since the championship gridiron machine of 1917.

Last week and again this week new plays were handed out to the eleven by the Alma mentor and these were rapidly worked out by the eleven and form an integral part of the offensive work that will be used against the Hollanders in the Saturday fray. The shift formation which proved considerable of a puzzle for M. A. C. in the second half of the opening game is expected to be called into use to some extent also, and this shift formation with the new plays promises to make an offense that will keep the Dutch going some to solve.

Coach Schouten is reported to have one of the strongest elevens that Hope has ever had. Included in his lineup will be six veterans of other seasons. Thus it is certain that the team the Maroon and Cream is to meet will be more of a veteran aggregation than the Alma clan can show.

SETHTON

Mrs. Mary Knott entertained the Sethton L. A. S. last Thursday. Mrs. Wm. Nickert will entertain the New Haven Aid this week Thursday.

Mrs. Hattie Hyatt is nursing at the Fred Grover home in Carson City. Mr. and Mrs. Ball of Albion were week end guests at the M. C. Morse home.

Will Fisher is quite sick. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Freeman and daughter, Alta, of Shepherd were Sunday visitors at the Verne Gardner home.

J. A. Nimmo and V. H. Gardner were in Alma and St. Louis on business Thursday.

Little Harland Wilcox, who has been under the doctor's care for several weeks, is some better at this writing.

About twenty-five from here attended the reception for Rev. and Mrs. Meade held at the Middleton M. E. church last Tuesday evening. A jolly program and a pot luck supper was thoroughly enjoyed.

SCAGGS was captain and owner of the craft, Maggie, a Green Pea Pirate—a freighter of green vegetables for the insatiable markets of San Francisco; Gibney was mate; McGuffey the engineer, and Neils Halvorsen the crew.

One night the Maggie, full laden, was approaching the Golden Gate; Captain Scraggs gave the signal for full speed astern. The worn signal wires gave at the first pull, however, and sent the unsuspecting McGuffey, the full speed ahead line. Result, the Maggie firmly stuck on a bar. From this point on the adventures of the Maggie and her crew begin. From the familiar, uneventful run along the coast the four fare to distant coasts and sunny, scented climes.

Peter B. Kyne has never written a better story—maybe none so good.
